The Weekly Habit

By Toyo Takata

It's tough to punch out a column knowing that the Yankees and the Dodgers are in the midst of the first game of the 1949 World Series. Just got back into our third-floor office from the printing shop downstairs where they've installed a radio.

Our World Series recollection goes back to the days when Connie Mack's Athletics with players like Jimmy Foxx, Al Simmons, Jimmy Dykes and Lefty Grove fought it out for three successive years with Gabby Street's St. Louis Cardinals whose lineup boasted stars as Wild Bill Hallahan, Jimmy Wilson, Andy High, Burleigh Grimes and Frankie Frisch. There was that one series when Pepper Martin, the Wild Hoss of the Ozarks stole everything but Shibe Field despite Mickey Cochrane.

Then came the '32 series when Babe Ruth pointed to the center-field bleachers at Wrigley Field with two strikes against him, then promptly slammed the next offering of Charlie Root into those same bleachers. We heard that game, it was on a Saturday or Sunday morning, otherwise we would be in school. Morning you ask? Sure, it was back on the coast where it's three hours earlier.

But getting away from the Series. . . .

This morning we talked with Fred Nogami, Nisei veteran who saw service in Southeast Asia. Regarding the discrimination against U.S. Nisei officers at a British rest hotel in Japan, he had nothing to add. But he said that he didn't like the treatment that he and other soldiers under the British command received at American PX's and canteens in India.

KICKED OUT

He said that while American soldiers were allowed to enter British canteens and were not treated with any disfavor, American M.P.'s kept the British soldiers out of their PX's. Fred said he himself had been ejected a couple of times.

In order to find out if any Nisei soldiers from Canada encountered any discrimination in the Far East, we contacted several of these boys. They were stationed in various parts of the Far East and they all were unanimous that none of them had [illegible] racial discrimination [illegible] heard of any other [illegible] Nisei servicemen who [illegible]

[illegible] however, mention [illegible] of a Chinese girl [illegible] auxiliary [illegible] permitted to swim [illegible] Singapore reserved [illegible]. She was [illegible] to this Nisei, [illegible] bathing suit, they [illegible] that she was in [illegible] and some might take [illegible] against her enter- [illegible] the pool.

One thing they pointed out was that in both the Australian and British armies there was much more rank distinction than in the Canadian forces. Both the Australian and British militaries frowned on fraternization while the Canadians took a more liberal attitude.

Among the ex-servicemen we contacted were Tad Ode and George Hasegawa, both of whom went as far as Japan. George, we believe, is about the only Canadian Nisei who has been right around the world. Back on the coast, he joined the crew of the Restorer, an U.S. — owned ship which repaired cables in the Pacific and on this particular trip some time before the war, he went as far as Singapore and the ship even docked at Manila in the Philippines.

When he went to Japan with the Intelligence, he crossed the Atlantic and travelled eastward to Japan, thus making a circuit of the globe.

We also talked with Jack Oki, who frequently scribbles a few lines for us, Bob Hoita one of the first to join and whose father was a veteran of World War I, also to George Suzuki and Sadao Nikaido.

It would seem the lack of news even hampers the best of newspapers. The other morning, a local a.m. sheet headlined a touching yet hardly a splash story about a D. P. boy and girl one living in the United States, the other in Canada, unable to be together because of immigration regulations, who had their short time together on the Niagara Falls boat and on the International Bridge. Hardly a headline story.

"Tokyo Rose" Defendant Gets 10 Years, $10,000 Fine, Will Appeal

SAN FRANCISCO. — Judge Michael J. Roche on Oct. 6 sentenced Iva Toguri d'Aquino convicted of treason for making propaganda broadcasts from Radio Tokyo, to 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The minimum penalty for a treason conviction is five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The 33-year old Los Angeles-born Nisei and former UCLA student was reported to have shown no visible signs of emotion as Judge Roche pronounced sentence in the San Francisco federal court.

The chief defense counsel Wayne Collins has already served notice that he will appeal the case.

Population In Japan To Top 100 Million

TOKYO. — It was reported recently that by the most conservative estimates Japan's population will pass the 100,000,000 mark in 1970.

The report prepared by the Research Division stated that the minimum figure for 1971 was 100,270,000, the medium estimate 107,288,000 and the maximum estimate 111,059,000.

All estimates assume that some control over family size will be exercised by the Japanese, the report said. The minimum estimate implies extensive application of techniques for controlling family size while the medium and maximum estimates assume a more gradual and more limited application of such treatments.

JCCA Officers

'They Work for the Japanese Canadians'

By George Tanaka, National Executive Secretary

In my tours across Canada as the JCCA National Executive Secretary, I met many of the JCCA officers and committee members of the Provincial and Local Chapters. I have been greatly impressed with the spirit of these people and the responsibilities which they accept so firmly on their shoulders. They have made possible the functioning of the JCCA as a national organization.

It seemed to me that these good people believed in the principles and concepts to which the JCCA subscribes and which are declared in the National Constitution. Let me tell you of their little known story.

In British Columbia, I received this account of the contribution a Nisei made as a JCCA member, from his fellow JCCA workers.

After evacuation, this Nisei bought a farm and resettled with his family in the interior of British Columbia. Through hard work and perseverance, he managed to develop his farm. He took an active part in the JCCA because he believed in the good work it could do serving the people.

One day he was faced with a dilemma. The JCCA urgently needed his services but he was also faced with the fact that his own farm required his full attention during the very busy growing season.

LOST CROP

He made his decision. He gave his services freely to the JCCA because the people were greatly in need of the organization's help. Due to this sacrifice, he was not able to devote his full time to the tending of his farm crops and as a result, lost part of his crop for that season. The financial loss suffered amounted to several hundreds of dollars. His family suffered the consequences but the people benefitted by his services through the JCCA.

It would seem that such a person would learn not to be so generous with his precious time and energy at the sacrifice of his farm and his family's welfare. But next year, when the services of the JCCA were again greatly needed, he again gave his services to the JCCA and unfortunately at a time when his farm required his attention almost 24 hours a day. For the second year, he gave of his utmost to the people as a JCCA worker. He lost some of his crops again due to his unselfish devotion to the important work of the JCCA.

Let me tell you of another story which has come to my attention. This JCCA worker lives in Alberta. He and his fellow JCCA workers have given of their services year after year in order to make possible a JCCA organization to serve the people.

SACRIFICE

He made his livelihood during the farming months in work which is connected with farm crops and all during the Spring and Summer and Fall months managed to earn his living and to save money and still contribute generously all his spare time to carry on JCCA work. However, during the winter, no work is available in town and as a great many of the Japanese Canadians managed to do, he could earn his living as a sawmill worker in lumbering operations which are carried on in the winter time near the foothills of the Rockies.

But he, too, found it necessary to make a severe decision. For, should he stay in town, there were no opportunities of employment during the winter months and he would not be able to provide for his living expenses but should he leave to work in the sawmills, it would not be possible for him to contribute to the important and vital work of the JCCA. The JCCA had great need of his services to carry on important work for the welfare of the Japanese Canadians.

Owing to his decision to give his services to the JCCA, he was forced to use up much of his savings to pay for his living expenses during the long winter months. He suffered financial set-back through loss of wages and depletion of savings in the amount of $700 but the Japanese Canadian people received the benefits of his services in the JCCA.

Like all JCCA workers who give of their services for the welfare of the people, the contribution is made not only for one year but is given freely year after year.

QUEBEC WORKER

I would like to tell you the story of another JCCA worker in Quebec. Like his fellow JCCA workers in the Province, he is continually giving of his time freely for the benefit of the people, time and again, year after year.

One year while he was free to change his employment, he was confronted with the fact that the JCCA's services were very greatly needed by the Japanese Canadian people in Quebec and he therefore devoted his time to the work of the JCCA. Due to the great need for his services in vital JCCA work at this critical period, he devoted almost all of his time to the organization's

Japanese Americans Worse Off Economically, Better Socially Than Pre-War, Says Writer

SAN FRANCISCO. — The Japanese American today is worse off economically than he was before the war, although his social status is improved, according to James C. Anderson, United Press correspondent.

Anderson reported on the present day status of the Japanese Americans who were evacuated in 1942 in an article in the San Francisco News.

He cited the case of the Hagiwara family which owned and operated the Japanese tea garden for 47 years. During relocation they lost their tea garden, their home and most of their money and were forced to make a new start in life after the war when they returned to the west coast.

A survey of the evacuation losses to the Japanese Americans puts the cost at [illegible] million.

Economically they are worse off than they were before the war. Most of the older Japanese are working as farm laborers, gardeners or domestics. There is no unemployment but they have to take what they can get.

Anderson reports that the lot of the younger Nisei is better than that of their parents. Nisei girls get employment in secretarial work because of the shortage of skilled labor. The college-trained professional is enjoying a good business and is patronized by whites and Orientals.

Many were forced into new industries. In Los Angeles, employment of Japanese Americans in the garment industry has increased over [illegible] per cent. He points out that the Nisei have entered the teaching field and cites the awarding of important art prizes to two Nisei.

ホーム・ラン

打ち合はせの都合で、試合は午後一時半から先方の校庭で行はれた。

土曜日で、社を急いで早く出た八十二は、一時すぎに、先方の校庭に着いた。

ちようど杉野先生その他男女の先生たちに引率されて選手たちや應援の兒童たちが到着したところだつた。

八十二がシート・ノックをした。

こちらが先攻で、試合ははじまつた。はじめ敵軍の投手の肩がまだきまらず、こちらの一番打者が四球に出た。が二番、三番とつづいて三振を喫らひ、早くも二死になつた。次の打者は主將の西田投手だつた。

「ツー・ストライキまでは、好きな球が來るまで見逸つたつていいよ。だけど、いい球が來たら、打つて出るんだぜ」

と、八十二は西田少年に注意して置いた。

この頃非常によく打つやうになつてゐる西田少年は、利口さうな眼を輝やかせて、

「はい。」

とうなづいた。

ゝ高目のストライキが來た。西田少年のバットが鋭く振られた。

球は、まつすぐに三壘ベースの右をかすめて、左翼に飛んだ。ヒット。

二壘にゐた走者は三壘を越えて本壘に走つた。左翼手からバック・ホーム。セーフ！一點先取だ。

脚の速い西田少年は二壘に達してゐた。

次打者三振で、チェーンヂ。

いよいよ味方の守備だ。

西田投手は今日は落ちついてゐた。低目をつく直球が思ふやうにプレートの近目を通つた。スピードもつき、なかなか打たせない。第一回、二者三振、三壘ゴロでチェーンヂ。

味方の應援團は大喜びだ。杉野先生もにこにこしてゐる。

試合はそのまゝ、双方の投手の好投で、一對〇のまま五回を終つた。

黄葉の秋と釣り

「モリガン」（森元二）という青年がいた。今から二十五年も前のヴァンクーヴァーでのことである。

當時の勞働組合の機關新聞「日刊民衆」に「活を入れる」というので自から飛び込んできた元氣者だつたが、トロントで繪の勉強をしたとて、一枚の油繪を持つて來た。イエローとオレンヂとグリーン色で塗りたくつた風景畫だつたが、これはビーシー州沿岸などでは見られない、目のさめるような、けんらんたる彩色で、オンタリオ州には、こんな美しい秋景色があるものかなと、半ば疑う氣持でながめたことであつた。

カズローにいた頃、あすこのレーキの青い色と紫色になる高い山を眺めたとき、濃い色彩の繪のあり得ることを知つたわけだつたが、あすこらの山のエゾ松が黄葉して、全山が黄金色にも見え立つ景色もすばらしい。山にはそろそろ松だけが出はじめたことであろう。

トロントでも今頃は木々が黄葉しはじめて可なりきれいである。木の葉が黄ばむと想い出されるのは、それを合圖によく釣れ出したビーシー州でのトラウト釣りである。

若し沿岸に行ける機會があつたら、あのトラウト釣りだけはして見たいと思う。そんなのん氣なバチ當り――とも言われようが、戰前の私にはたつた一つの道樂だつたのだから仕方もない。

フレザー河の方々にあるサンドビーチで、シルヴアーデールの向うにある島で、ステーヴフオールスの山を眺めながら、終日考えるともなく考えごとにふける。フレザー河ではあすこが一ばん好きであつた。モントリオルにいる滋木正夫君にいつも連れて行つてもらつた。あの島の裏側にあたる「タンボ」は、晩秋から初冬にかけて、たき火しながらの樂しさだつた。

ニコメックル、サーペンタイン、サモンリヴアー、リットルキャンベルの川々は、あの山も角、このたまり――と今でもはつきり想い浮かべて魚の引き込みから上げるまでの感觸を、手から胸まで感じることが出來る。ホワイトロック近くのリットルキャンベル川は特になつかしい。やぶの多い小川でフライはむづかしいが、ウキを附けての流しづりで獲物が多かつた。青山さんや秋山さんとよく出かけたものである。戰爭になつてからも一度出かけたほどの執着ぶりだつた。

シーモアクリーキの河口にも足しげく通つた。――と夏などへステングスパーク近くの家から、毎朝のように仕事に行く前出かけたものである。たいていは目さすコーボーにはお目にかゝれないで、潮の引いてる時にはカニやウニを拾つて來たものだつた。

私の釣りの樂しみも、こんな想い出と、ウオルトンの釣りの書や日本の親切な友だちが送つてくれる「釣り人」という雜誌などによる紙上の釣りだけであつたが、九月の或る日オークヴイルの内堀君がトロントから百哩ばかり東北のピーターボローにつれて行つてくれたので、八年ぶりに釣りらしい釣りの樂しみを味うことが出來たし、バスやピコレル（小カマス）を大方リミットまで釣りあげた。同行の近藤君と内堀君も、はじめに書いた「モリガン」君の友だちだつたので、彼のことで色々話が出たし、湖岸の林の黄葉も「モリガン」の繪ほどではなかつたけれど、美しいものであつた。

十五、六の時から自炊生活をしたことのある私は、自分の食うだけなら料理には事欠かぬ「自信」がある。大抵の魚は、トーフやネギなどといつしよに「チリ」にして食べるとおいしい。松たけの代りにはそろそろ出はじめたマッシルームを使えばよい。

日系人の福利の爲に犧牲的奉仕

全加市協の資金募集運動が開始されたのに關連して田中書記長は、市協の仕事其他を說明して人々の協力方を訴えているが、次は日系人のために良き奉仕を續けている各州やローカルの市協が如何にしてその活動を保ち得ているか、又市協の仕事に携つている者が人々のために盡す事を第一義にするという信念の下に犧牲的奉仕を續けているかを示す一例として、同氏が各地を廻つて實際に受けた印象を土台にして綴つたものである

▲ビーシー州の場合――總移動後インテリアの農園に落着いた或る二世は非常な努力を拂つてこれを開發したが、彼は市協の活動分子でもあつたので農繁期になつてジレンマに直面した。收穫仕事と市協の双方で彼の働きを必要としていたのだが、彼は人々の爲には自己の利害は顧みられないとて市協のために働いたそのため彼は數百弗の損害を蒙つたのであるが、次の年の收穫期にも同じ犧牲を拂つて市協の仕事に携つた。こんな例はまだ幾らでもある

▲アルバタ州の場合――年年市協のために奉仕している多くの人々の中から一人の例を擧げる。彼は春から秋にかけて農園で働く傍ら市協の仕事に携つて居るのだが、冬期にはロッキー山麓の山仕事に行くほかに生活の途がない。しかし遠く離れては市協の重要な仕事が出來ないので冬期中は夏間の働きでためた金を使つて生活しながら市協の持場に留まつたのである。彼が常然得られる賃金や貯金の使い減らしを計算すると七百弗にも上るのであるが、その働きによつて日系人は利益を受けているのである。市協で奉仕している人々のこうした犧牲は一年ぎりのものでなく年年と續いているのであり、同じような例はサスカチワン、マニトバ、オンタリオ、クエベック各州にも無數にある

▲クエベック州の場合――モントリオルのこの二世は年年歲々、人々の利益のために絕えざる奉仕を續けているのであるが、或る年は一段と條件のよい勸め口を得るために他に移れる筈であつたが彼は市協の仕事の大切さを考えて自己の問題は度外視し、八ケ月間も僅かばかりの貯金で生活を支えながら市協のために働き續けたのである

▲日系カナダ人の政治的、經濟的、社會的、道義的あらゆる方面にわたる福祉增進をはかる市協の精神を支持してその仕事に携わるこれらの一世二世の奉仕があればこそ、市協はその活動を續けて、みなさんの利益を守り得るものである事を記憶して頂きたい

A fashion-and-beauty article

Our Little Woman

By JACK NAKAMOTO

The 20th in a Series

For our little woman there's a soft, comfortable twin sweater set of 100 per cent nylon staple yarn which is just about right to be worn at a time when it's not quite warm enough to be without something nor quite cold enough yet to wear a heavy sweater. These light-weight sweaters can be washed easily, do not need blocking, yet do not lose their shape.

Since sweaters are a fashion stand-by, our Niseiette should always remember to select them carefully. If she buys the classic variety known as a Brooks, she'll be able to wear it for years as it's always in style. Sweaters are bought by bust measure. They should be loose but not baggy and should never be worn too tight. There are sweaters that are appropriate for all occasions.

Question: My 14-months-old son is always on the go, walking and playing cheerfully without seeming to get tired at all. What worries me, however, is that his legs are bowlegged. I would appreciate it if you would advise me what could be done about it.

—Mrs. T. M., Toronto

Answer: According to Myrtle Meyer Eldred, the columnist of "Your Baby", "Bowlegs and knock-knees would indicate faulty metabolism of mineral elements needed to keep the bones strong enough not to bend under the weight of the body. Since nature is ever eager to follow its original pattern, the inclusion of sufficient Vitamin D in order to help the body to a better metabolism of its mineral supplies is the first step to be taken when the legs or other large bones of the body show any distortion."

So it seems that Vitamin D and minerals are required to maintain straight legs. You must insure nonetheless that the child's whole diet is balanced. At this early age you can rest assured that the deformity will be outgrown.

P.S. In future, kindly confine your queries pertaining only to fashion and beauty.

Speaking about babies, the end of the year will find every man, woman and child in Japan from one to two years younger since they have adopted the western method of computing ages. Ages, previously, had been computed immediately after the conception took place.

It seems that Prince Charles, the 10-month-old son of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, is unwittingly setting baby styles in toys, nightgowns and even cots. Stores in the United States and Canada are selling rattles and plastic, orange-beaked ducks like hot cakes simply because the royal couple bought such items for their baby recently.

This column is your column—yes, you Nisei ladies! And it should be a sort of a readers' participation column in which we all should take part in exchanging ideas and tips, particularly on fashion and charm.

At best, I am not a beauty or fashion authority yet, so I cannot promise to find solutions for all your beauty and clothes problems. But you are more than welcome, however, to send in your problem and if it is of general interest, it will be answered through the column. In writing to me in care of this paper, you must sign your real name in proof of your good faith and sincerity. If you wish, only your nickname or initials will be used upon request.

work and thereupon found it necessary to put aside the important question of his own personal employment.

For eight months he managed to live from the modest savings he had accumulated. His own personal advancement in his particular field of employment was retarded by his devotion to the work of the JCCA but the people it served received the benefits of his services as a JCCA worker.

It is hardly possible for me to tell you the full extent of the services which have been given to the Japanese Canadian people by the workers of the JCCA. They are members of your local communities in each and every Province where the JCCA organization exists.

These JCCA workers are both Issei and Nisei who have given so freely and generously of their abilities and energy from year to year and have made possible the functioning of the JCCA for they believe in the fine principles which would subscribe to action for the betterment of the political, social, moral and economic welfare of Canadians of Japanese ancestry.

Danforth Cleaners Triumph In League Finals; Stay Undefeated To Win Miyasaki, Matsui Cups

Danforth Cleaners once again regained possession of the prized Harry Miyazaki Trophy by virtue of their 5-3 victory over the Cardinals in a game played at Christie Pits on Oct. 2. Unbeaten in their 14 scheduled games, the men of Kadonaga kept their record intact as they swept the round robin series in three straight. In 17 starts this season, the Danforth Cleaners team, League and Post Season Champs, really proved their supremacy by remaining undefeated.

In the finals, the Cardinals needed two wins to win the championship while the Cleanermen only needed one and they made certain that they would be playing only one as they pushed across three runs in the first inning and were never headed by the fighting Cards.

Danforth touched Ken Ikeda for five hits, featured by Mac Oikawa's two hits, one which could have been a homer. Cardinals reached Tucker Uchikura for the same number of hits but they were scattered blows. Tucker was in trouble in the third inning when he allowed three runs but was in control throughout the rest of the game.

Ken Ikeda pitched and batted his heart out but to no avail, getting two of the Cards' hits. What lost the game for the Cards was the fact that four of the five Danforth runs were of the unearned type. The Danforth team took advantages of all the breaks, like a true championship team.

Now perhaps after such a successful season, this warrants an exhibition game with the Westerns against the Nisei League All-Stars.

Toronto Golf Club To Hold Final Tourney

The Toronto Japanese Golf Club will hold its final tournament of the year on Sunday, Oct. 9, at the Cliffside Golf Course.

It will be a team play in which the members of the club will be divided into two sides. The total gross strokes of each team will be added up to decide the winners. Three ball prizes will be given to the low net scorers. The banquet and the presentation of prizes will be held at 5 p.m. sharp that evening to terminate another successful year.

Great interest is shown toward the club's Third Annual Dance to be held on Monday, Thanksgiving Night at the spacious Masaryk Ballroom with music by Stan Patch's popular orchestra. See you all at the dance.

J.C.C.A. Badminton Opens New Season

Opening the fall season of the J.C.C.A. Badminton Club, a meeting was held on Sept. 28 at the Church of All Nations with president Ken Fukusaka in charge.

Two films showing the expert technique of Jack Purcell, former World Professional Champion, and other famous shuttlers were shown.

Executive members for the following season were elected as follows: Johnny Tanaka, president; Roy Shin, vice-president; Molly Tanaka, secretary; Kim Noda, treasurer; Tucker Morita and Gus Hirano, playing captains.

It was announced that the All Nations group will play Wednesday nights from 8-10:30 p.m. commencing from Oct. 5. Instead of the Monday nights played previously, the Trinity United Church group will play Sat. nights from 7-11 p.m. excluding one night every month. The first night of play will begin on Nov. 5.

Both groups will be limited to 40 members. To insure membership, former members of the All Nations group who wish to play must register and pay fees by Oct. 12, the Trinity group by Nov. 12.

Fees for the entire season will be eight dollars for the All Nations group and seven dollars for the Trinity members. New members are welcome. All those who have not already applied are asked to notify Matt Matsui, MI. 9633 by Oct. 12.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Katsuno, Mrs. Kikujiro Ishii and Miss Dorothy Ishii, have moved to 9 Thyra Ave., Toronto.

ACCENTS ON SPORTS

This Judo Institute in Vancouver, the only organization of its kind in Canada is quite the growing thing. It is located at [illegible] Granville St., and has a membership of 600, ranging in age from 10 to 60.

It was organized by Al Calder, who picked up his knowledge of judo in Vancouver and who is well-known by the Nisei who took an interest in judo back on the coast. He is a black-belter. Though only 27, he received his black belt nine years ago.

His mother taught English to Japanese children and thereby Calder got a chance to learn judo when he was only ten years old. During the war he was with the paratroopers, and in 1947 he organized the institute. The institute is a non-profit organization, and its only aim is to promote judo as an amateur international sport.

All prospective new members are interviewed, an application form filled in and the institute must be satisfied that the applicant does not intend to misuse what he is taught before he is allowed to join. Then they are placed on a three months' trial basis to make sure he is the right sort.

Of its nearly 600 members, 30 are women.

And speaking of women judoists, Umeko Fukuda of Tokyo, is one of three women who holds fourth rank in judo although she stands only 5 feet ½ inches and weighs but 105 pounds. The highest rank held by a woman is fifth, and, fortunately for us, there is but one.

But unfortunately, it seems to have died out among the Nisei. At least, this seems to be the case in Eastern Canada. It is probably carried on in a very small scale elsewhere but there doesn't seem to be any noticeable revival.

We really hope that someone will start it again for it is one thing many Nisei have acquired and it is a shame to just throw it away. Seems that nowadays many take the attitude that anything that smacks of Japanese is cast aside.

Recently read a short item by a Nisei sportswriter in the U. S. who says that experts there consider that if judoists of the same rank from Japan and the U. S. were to meet, the Americans would win because the Japanese ratings are inferior. In the U. S. the highest ranking is rokudan or sixth class of whom there are two.

In Canada, the top is yodan or fourth class. This rank is held by Shigetaka Sasaki who is now residing at Ashcroft, B. C.

The coach of the Japanese swimmers, Masaji Kiyokawa, told this one. He made sure that his team did not touch melons in California.

In the 1932 Olympics at Los Angeles, Japan won all but the 400-metre free-style and the swimmers in this event had a special fondness for melons. The result was a tummy-ache, and the disastrous result was a defeat.

The winner of that event was Buster Crabbe, who became a screen he-man soon after. And the Japanese swimmer who was expected to win that event was Tsutomu Oyokota who happens to be the second cousin of one of The New Canadian staff.

Ken Mitsui, in the final game of the Westerns' series victory over West York, was hit in the right forearm by a pitched ball fracturing a bone in the forearm. The injury is not serious.

Koei Mitsui reports that the Westerns will be strengthened next year by the promotion of some of their junior players. He names infielder Akio Hayashi and centrefielder Key Tanaka as the best prospects. Others who may be moved up are the Uchikura brothers and Kenny Ikeda, the sixteen-year old pitcher.

We called Koei up a few minutes before game [illegible] of the World Series opener and he picks the Yankees to win [illegible].
